

JUST A LITTLE EFFORT

On the part of Dispatch subscribers who think well of the paper would accomplish wonders in extending its circulation. If you have a friend or neighbor who would likely be interested in a purely county newspaper, why not ask him to enroll his name on the Dispatch list?

Terms: $1.00 a Year.

The Mahoning Dispatch

An Independent Family Journal—Devoted to the Interests of All Classes and Nationalities.

OUR JOB PRINTING DEPARTMENT is equipped to turn out first-class work promptly and the work must be satisfactory to the customer. No difference how little printed matter you use or how much this office will be pleased to have your order. Prices are as reasonable as is consistent with the quality of the work.

P. M. Herald

Invariably in Advance

VOL. XXXVI.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, O., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1912.

NO. 31

WASHINGTONVILLE

William Stouffer is on the sick list with kidney trouble.

Raymond Lewis is suffering from an attack of asthma.

H. B. Booth of Youngstown is among old friends here.

Frank Boston and family spent Sunday with relatives in Lisbon.

John Kirtley, Jr., is making repairs to his residence on Water street.

P. C. Carey, editor of the Wells Fargo Express Co., was here Saturday.

Will Reed, Jr., employed in New Philadelphia, spent Sunday here with his family.

Arthur Johnson and family were with her parents near Locust Grove last Sunday.

Jos. Warner has moved his family into the John Cole residence on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Welkart and daughter Thelma of Leetonia were at the old home Sunday.

Tom Bowker of New Waterford is here attending to the loading of potatoes for Koch Bros.

Grandma Mellinger and John Frederick of Leetonia called on Jos. Frederick and wife Sunday.

O. P. Moore and wife were in Salem Thursday evening visiting the lodge of Pythian sisters.

John Bilger was home over Sunday. He is slowly convalescing from an entire summer's sickness.

Misses Clara and Bessie Welkart entertained Miss Euphemia Anderson of East Liverpool, Sunday.

William Boston and wife are spending a few weeks with their daughter, Mrs. E. H. Slagle, near Greenford.

Ross Fisher, a Washingtonville boy, is now acting as brakeman on the through freight of the Erie road.

Mrs. Eliza Bilger suffered a slight paralytic stroke last Friday. She is able to be around at this writing.

Miss Bessie Lewis was called home from New Castle on account of the serious illness of her brother Raymond.

A number of the followers of W. J. Bryan were in Youngstown Monday listening to the eloquence of the Commoner.

Mrs. William McDonald and daughter of Aurora were at the home of her father, J. D. Woods, a few days this week.

Edwin Johnson suffered an attack of appendicitis Saturday evening. Medical attention has relieved him of the trouble.

Joe Fast, Wilfred Hutchinson, Job Baab and Mrs. S. J. Taylor are recovering from their sickness reported last week.

The ladies of the Lutheran Aid society met at the home of their president, Mrs. Daniel Helster, Wednesday afternoon.

Koch Brothers of New Waterford are loading the first crop of potatoes for the season. The Pittsburgh district gets them.

Edward Herrmann, accompanied by Miss Mildred Fomach of Leetonia, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Simpson on Maple street.

A number of local lovers of football were in Alliance Saturday and cheered the Mt. Union team in their victory against Case school of Cleveland.

Myron Rickard, conductor of the Erie through freight, was the lucky man of the Leetonia poultry association. His ticket called for the turkey.

C. S. Anglemeyer of the Leetonia Poultry Association took everything in sight with his high class White Minorcas at the Hagerstown, Md. fair last week.

Rev. Alexander McLaughlin died in Elkhardt, Ind., a few days ago, aged 78 years. Mr. McLaughlin was pastor of the Lutheran congregation here in 1866 and 1867.

The East Liverpool eleven failed to appear here for the football game scheduled for Sunday afternoon. The Washingtonville eleven are open to all comers. Write James Atkinson for place and dates.

The ten lodges of K. of P. in Columbiana county met with the county deputy, Joseph Thorpe, in Lisbon Friday evening to make arrangements for holding the annual county convention. East Liverpool delegation won. The time is set for the evening of Nov. 12th.

The attending physician on Friday pronounced scarlet fever as the ailment of little Clara Campbell of East Main street. A brother attending school was immediately recalled home and the home placed under quarantine Saturday and Sunday. The third grade room of the school was thoroughly fumigated by the health officer.

While attending the serenading of the wedding party last Thursday evening Master Eldon Holt stepped in front of an automobile driven by William Compton. The impact knocked the boy down and the machine passed over him. Medical aid was summoned. A bad bruise on the forehead and one hand slightly crushed by the wheels were the only injuries found. Serenaders were busy Thursday evening after the wedding ceremony of Will King. As is the custom here, the bride and groom must have a joy ride. This evening the delivery wagon of Sam Platt, decorated with sleigh bells, was pressed into service. A base drum was used to help the noise making. After the return refreshments were served to the serenaders from 11 p. m. until 1 a. m. The male quartet held first place. Their last song, "The Old Oaken Bucket," was never less rendered with as many broken staves as it had that night.

The Fairview mine worked full time the past week with fine prospects for a continuance. The clay mine was idle Saturday and Monday on account of no cars. The Peerless mine has been cleared of the obstruction to the slope and is working full force with enough orders booked to warrant a steady run. The Salem mine has not as yet started operations, but daily expects orders to commence. The Williams Coal & Clay Co., of Pittsburgh has its new mine opened on the Y. & O. road near West Point and is shipping some coal. Their other opening is into the coal and both places are mining samples of clay for test purposes.

W. C. Davis of Sharon was here Saturday.

W. G. Welkart was home from Youngstown Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Wilkinson is among the sick of the village.

Morg DeJano of Allegheny stopped off here between trains Tuesday.

Miss Elizabeth Holland, employed in Sebring, was home over Sunday.

Alf Graham of Cleveland was entertained by Miss Marguerite DeJano, Sunday.

A valuable horse belonging to William Kennedy fell dead Tuesday while working in potato field.

Geo. Atkinson and family of Steubenville are spending a few days here among relatives and friends.

Farmers are busy with the corn, potato and apple harvest. All are bumper crops in this section.

John Davidson and family of New Waterford spent Sunday with J. D. Smith and family on W. Main street.

The barber chair in the municipal barber shop is idle on account of the sickness of Paul R. Gross, the barber.

Fire warden William Holt is making his annual rounds inspecting dwelling chimneys. Be ready for him and give all the assistance possible.

Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning and evening. The morning theme will be "Our Reading, Prayer meeting each Thursday evening."

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Grindle entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Holbeck and Mrs. William Herron of Calla and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grindle of Canton at dinner Friday.

On account of no game here Sunday afternoon lovers of football went to Salem to witness the game between Salem and Alliance. A hard fought battle was witnessed, the score being 14 to 0 in favor of the home team.

Kindly hand to A. L. Taylor any item of local news that comes to your notice and he will see that it gets into The Mahoning Dispatch. Help to keep Washingtonville before the reading public during the absence of the regular correspondent, Mr. Harold.

Word was received here Sunday of the death of George Wonsettler, aged 88 years, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anna Bush of Greenford. Funeral services were held at Midway meeting house Monday. Several old acquaintances from here were in attendance.

The Smart Set met with Misses Bessie and Clara Welkart Tuesday evening. The usual good time was had. Refreshments were served. In the contest, Miss Rhea Gilbert won the first prize and Miss Helen Thorpe the second. Miss Mabel Ballentine of Leetonia was an invited guest.

Miss Hazel Baker, nee of the bride of Will D. King last Thursday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, was married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller, of East Main street, in the presence of the immediate families, a few relatives and invited guests, were married to the Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's parents.

BLANCO

Oct. 23—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wessner and granddaughter Annie visited the former's brother, Horace, and family in Garrettville Saturday and Sunday.

Chas. Bryan went to Youngstown Sunday and Monday on to Belleaire to visit his sister a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Helsel and sons John and David visited at Jacob Helsel's, Sunday.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the funeral of Solomon Hartzell in Berlin, Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Smith entertained Mrs. Retta Middleton of Patmos and her aunt, Mrs. Stallsmith, of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. G. W. Swank and Mrs. Chas. Forney were in Alliance Friday.

Vern Thorpe was home over Sunday.

Burton Kale was at McKees Rocks and New Castle a few days the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Orr Mead visited her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Orr, in North Jackson, Monday.

Earland Force and Dell French of Pritchard called on Blanco friends, Sunday.

Frank Porter and Perry Wessner called on Ezra Shilling, Sunday.

Miss Lucy Vaughn of North Jackson recently visited her niece, Mrs. Elmer Klingeman, a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Stanford and children of Diamond, Mrs. Jess Stanford and Joe Byers and Arch Williamson of Pritchard visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Swank, Sunday.

Mrs. Nettie Falney and daughter Helen and Pearl Helsel of Deerfield called on Frank Force and family, Sunday.

Ben Butler, wife and children of Woodland, Pa. are visiting Wm. Onstott and family.

Vernon Mansel and sons Hobert and Elie were here Tuesday.

E. Kale and Mrs. H. E. Kale were in Youngstown Friday.

Mrs. E. P. Klingeman and aunt, Miss Vaughn, called on Mrs. S. C. Rose, Monday.

Mrs. Vern Thorpe and son Richard visited friends in Warren, Monday.

NEW BUFFALO

Oct. 23—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed church will hold an oyster supper in grange hall Saturday evening, Oct. 26. All cordially invited.

Mrs. E. A. Sturgeon of Salem spent several days the first of the week with E. G. Mott and family.

William Holland, wife and daughter Hazel, spent Saturday and Sunday in Washingtonville.

Mrs. Carl Clay and daughter Ethel of Gettysburg spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Rupright.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hixson was buried in the Reformed church cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Wm. Geis and wife attended the county Sunday school convention in Youngstown last week.

Mrs. Wynon of Youngstown spent several days last week at Freeman Rupright's.

Oliver West of East Lewistown called on Mrs. E. G. Mott, Monday.

Mrs. Emma Beard was in Youngstown Sunday.

Jesse West and wife and two daughters, Amy and Elizabeth, and E. G. Mott and wife were in Youngstown last Thursday.

R. A. Beard and family of Youngstown spent Sunday at Mrs. Emma Beard's.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Reformed church will hold an oyster supper Saturday evening, Oct. 26, in the Shady Hollow grange hall. All are invited.

</